

P #13

PMDC to hold session with foreign consultants, specialists tomorrow

Our correspondent

Islamabad

Pakistan Medical and Dental Council is organising an interactive session between its top office-bearers and some foreign medical consultants and specialists of Pakistani origin at its headquarters in Islamabad tomorrow (Monday).

According to Hina Shaukat, the spokesperson for PMDC, the participants will discuss PMDC progress at international level; day-to-day facilitation of Pakistani doctors working abroad; way forward and mutual experience sharing by overseas Pakistani doctors; guidance on postgraduate medical education; registration procedure for overseas Pakistani doctors; career opportunities for Pakistani doctors abroad; preparation of licence examination abroad, and guidance on foreign postgraduate education for Pakistani doctors.

She told this scribe on Saturday that foreign consultants and specialists scheduled to attend the session included emergency medicine consultant Dr. Ayyaz Abbasi, consultant orthopaedic surgeon Dr. Waseem Barkat, consultant neurosurgeon Dr. Irfan Malik, vascular surgeon Dr. Atiqur Rehman, consultant psychiatrist Dr. Shahid Latif, clinical oncologist Dr. Ayyaz Butt, nephrologist Dr. Awais Masood from the United Kingdom; dermatologist Dr. Roa Baber, cardiologist Dr. Sohail Ikram, pathologist Dr. Amir Akmal and specialists Dr. Majid Naeem, Dr. Shahbaz, Dr. Majid Naeem, Dr. Yousaf Haroon and Dr. Bashir from the United States of America; surgeon Dr. Ibrar Maqbool from Australia; paediatric consultant Dr. Alam Sheikh from Malaysia, and emergency surgery and medicine consultant Dr. Imran Zaffar and urologist Dr. Imran Majeed from the United Arab Emirates.